

Development of Quality Assurance Recommendations for the C. dubia Toxicity Test

Expert Science Panel Meeting
February 19, 2021

Today's Agenda

- Welcome!
- Science Panel Introductions
- Background and Rationale for the Study - John Wheeler, SWRCB
- Selected Stakeholder Perspectives
 - California Association of Sanitation Agencies - Mitch Mysliwiec, Larry Walker Associates
 - Non-Governmental Organizations - Kaitlyn Kalua, California Coastkeeper
- Charge to the Expert Science Panel
- Project Scope and Study Workplan – Alvina Mehinto, SCCWRP
- Conclusions and Next Steps

Expert Science Panel Members

- Toxicologist, Industry - Howard Bailey, Nautilus Environmental Canada
- Toxicologist, Government - Teresa Norberg-King, US Environmental Protection Agency, Great Lakes Toxicology and Ecology Division
- Toxicologist, Academic - Robert Brent, James Madison University
- Quality Assurance – Leana Van der Vliet, Environment and Climate Change Canada
- Biostatistician – John Bailer, Miami University of Ohio

Expert Science Panel Charge

- Assist in the design of the study and approve Final Workplan
- Review interim milestones and recommend improvements for future activities
- Obtain consensus on testing method guidance recommendations
- Approve Final Report